Old Business

-Resident Robbins questioned if anything being done about sod being ripped up by plow. Supervisor Wagner stated the area in question is in the right of way. However, he would have re-seeded if he had been contacted. Robbins stated the road has been relocated with plowing, etc. over the years.
-A & H Equipment has a 2012 Ford F-550 truck for sale. Total cost for truck would be $65,350 ready to drive. A Blizzard plow would cost an additional $6100. Supervisor Wagner will check on some questions Supervisor Hock and residents posed. Supervisor Wagner made motion to purchase truck, seconded by Supervisor Hock pending answers to those questions. Motion carried.
-5.1 miles tarred and chipped at a cost of $95,519. Additional roads will be worked on. Sokol will begin work on Peacock Corners Road soon. Supervisor Wagner will check pipe on Mordansville Road. May need to be replaced.
-Resident Robbins questioned the condition of the bridge to the cell tower locations. Larson inspected. AT&T will gunnite/shotcrete both sides. Bridge will then handle 80,000 lbs easily.
-Supervisors will ask Resident Randy Oman for permission to remove front area from abandoned building at the intersection of Peacock Corners & Whites Church Roads. Motorists do not have a clear view of oncoming traffic in that area.
